

I do not want the "no-call" to disappear. It is quite annoying to get phone calls at any time of the day or night from telemarketers. They should find another way to communicate with the public.